

ABA Set up

Janet Lund, PhD

Physical Layout

- Tables and Chairs

- Consider other distractions which are _____ and _____
- How are you going to store your _____ and _____
- Store some materials _____ to encourage _____
- Some items need to be on _____ shelves for free _____

Reinforcement

- Put together a _____ basket
- The more _____ you can provide the higher _____ in therapy.
- Restrict _____ of the reinforcers to only when they are with you
- Always have a _____ of reinforcers

Materials

- Keep your materials _____
- Keeping your materials in a basket or bin keeps them _____ prevents _____ access and helps keep your area clean
- Make sure to have a _____ of materials

Schedule

- How often will you provide _____ for your child.
- How will you make it _____.
- Typical ABA session lasts _____ hours
- How many _____ a day
- Necessary to have _____ instructors
- Allows for more _____ and decreases _____

Predictability

- Consider the child's _____ throughout the day
 - May be necessary for a _____ schedule.
-
-
-

- Instructors can use a _____ and _____ timer
- These timers let the student know how much time is left and gives a sense of _____

Curriculum

- ABLLS-R or _____
 - Decide how many _____ to teach in a session
 - Put together a _____ of teachers, therapists and parents who work with your child.
 - Necessary to have a _____ for guidance.
-
-
-

Notebook

- Necessary to have a _____
- Program sheets tells the instructor what _____, the objective, the SD, the _____, detailed teaching procedures and _____
- Graph section lists _____ and then actual data from the session
- Maintenance sheets allows some way to track students performance on programs _____
- Reinforcement inventory or _____
- General therapy notes will allow an instructor track _____ of the session.
- Behavior check list is used to _____ behavior and help you make _____ decisions.